

Aidlink (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/696>)

Founded in 1982, Aidlink is a non-denominational non-governmental organisation focusing on the support of small to medium sized long-term community development projects in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

These projects are in the areas of Health, Education and Training including Adult Literacy, Care of Street Children, Rural Development/Agriculture, Construction and Water Provision among others. Many of these projects are facilitated in the field by missionaries and/or local organisations. Community participation in all stages of the project cycle is encouraged to give a strong sense of ownership and to guarantee sustainability of the project.
