Migrant Community Needs Assessment - Interviews and Focus Groups for Healthcare and Frontline Staff

TASC, Ireland's Think Tank for Action on Social Change, is now recruiting research participants to contribute to a project being run in collaboration with the Irish Cancer Society. We are inviting healthcare and frontline staff who work with people from migrant backgrounds to participate in this important research. We want to hear about your perceptions about, and their engagement with, the Irish healthcare service. We are particularly interested in the experiences of refugees, asylum seekers and undocumented migrants.

You may participate by emailing research@tasc.ie (mailto:research@tasc.ie) or registering for one of the in person or online events we have posted on Eventbrite (<https://www.eventbrite.ie/o/tasc-think-tank-for-action-on-social-change-17919946653>).
