Background:

Northside Family Resource Centre, since its establishment in 1987, has sought to respond to the needs of the local community by providing opportunities to local people to support each other and search for ways to improve the quality of life in the area.

The successful candidate will be employed by Northside Family Resource Centre and will report to the Coordinator of Youth and Community Services and ultimately to the Voluntary Board of Management through the CEO.

The role of the Children's Integration Worker is to develop and implement children's services which meet the complex needs of children living in Knocklisheen Direct Provision Centre and other migrant centres on the Northside of the City.

Some of the Key Areas of Work include:

- Manage the day -to- day operation of the afterschool club based at Knocklisheen and offer outreach to children living in Direct Provision and Migrant Hubs.
- To plan, develop, deliver and evaluate projects and programmes based on current needs and encourage children and young people to actively participate in the design and development of programmes and offer opportunities for them to feedback on the programmes delivered
- To recognise signs of physical, sexual, and emotional abuse, neglect, and any concerns regarding the welfare of children. To record concerns promptly and accurately. To consult with the Designated Liaison Person and take appropriate action in accordance with Northside Family Resource Centre Child Protection Policy.
- To keep regular records in relation to all aspects of work and prepare reports as required.
- Lead and/or participate in Meitheal, carrying out a Meitheal where appropriate, and supporting the family to actively engage in the process.
- Take responsibility for any fee/capitation requirements under the National Childcare Scheme including the support of sponsorship for access to regulated settings.
- Develop, deliver, and support programmes in partnership with other statutory and community organisations groups that will meet the needs of children and young people where appropriate.
- Liaise with other agencies and services working with children and young people living in direct provision and migrant hubs and attend meetings where appropriate.
