The final Breakfast Club of our third series is here. If you have been promising yourself you'll get to one, now is the time!

On the 22nd May 2025 at 10am we will be in the Claremont Stadium (<https://www.claremontstadium.ie/>) in County Meath, discussing a very pertinent theme of Leadership and Allyship.

In modern language, 'ally' refers to a person supporting a marginalized group and indeed as a sector we probably understand the concept more than most. But what does allyship mean to us in our own Leadership journeys?

As the world turns on DEI now more than ever, we need to understand our responsibilities as allies and recognise our roles as individuals and leaders.

Our two speakers are actively committed to being allies and reflecting on their journey. Ediel Mc Sorley (<https://www.linkedin.com/in/ediel-mcsorley-6a81732a9/>) is Operations Director at Mr. Price Branded Bargains, (https://www.mrprice.online/?srsltid=AfmBOOpY78F3X74_a01KWZ8nw2CPYkHihGzb_W9tBW4KAanLCDiV0NQD) and Guillaume Jacquinot (<https://www.linkedin.com/in/guillaume-jacquinot-86184888/>) is Campaign and Advocacy Manager for The Wheel.

We hope you can join us for this in-person event. The event is a 45-minute chat with the speakers with 40 mins to meet other people and discuss what you've heard.

Our events are open to anyone in the sector at any level and events free to attend, you just need to register here (<https://www.wheel.ie/training/2025/05/leadership-academy-breakfast-club>).
