About Us: At Dublin Simon Community, we're dedicated to making home a reality. We empower individuals to access and sustain housing through services like prevention, addiction treatment, emergency response, and targeted interventions, in collaboration with our partners.

If you share our values and want to make a difference, we'd love to hear from you. We're looking for client-focused, friendly, and adaptable individuals to join our team.

We prioritise best practices in HR, including staff training, communication, and involvement in decision-making, to create a supportive and effective work environment.

About the job:

As an Outreach Support Worker, you will be working on the frontline in Dublin city helping people who need it the most. Your role will involve offering essential support services, connecting them to vital resources and advocating for their needs.

We provide with 10 training days throughout the year, ensuring you have the support and training to succeed in this role. We provide regular supervision sessions, based on the individual needs of the person, focusing on increasing knowledge and skills to support professional development and career growth.

This role offers an opportunity to develop your skills in case management, stakeholder relations, advocacy, crisis management skills and more.

Join the outreach team to help individuals secure more permanent accommodation and support their personal development. Be a part of our Dublin Simon success stories.
