About Foróige

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The organisation aims to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society. Foróige employs 500 staff and involves thousands of volunteers in the creation and delivery of high quality services to young people through the operation of over 500 Foróige Clubs and over 200 General Youth Services and Special Projects. These community-based and community-supported initiatives are run throughout the country, in rural and urban environments, and generally in partnership with various voluntary and statutory agencies.

The organisation is a registered charity and is supported by a combination of statutory, philanthropic and corporate funding.

Foróige is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to a policy of Equality of Opportunity in its employment practices.

Project information

The Roscommon Youth Service 1 is funded by the Department Education and Youth through the Galway Roscommon Education and Training Board (G.R.E.T.B.). The project aims to support young people ages 10-24 years who have identified needs additional to the general population. This Project will operate under the UBU Your Place Your Space scheme guidelines, and informed by the GRETB service requirement. The aim of the service is to give young people an opportunity to overcome adversity and reach their full potential in a safe and supportive environment. The successful candidates will work as part of the Foróige and Roscommon Youth Service team in County Roscommon and will have responsibility for delivering a service to young people in Boyle, Ballaghaderreen, Castlerea and Roscommon Town and its hinterlands. The project will provide a range of targeted interventions/services, including:

- Design, delivery and evaluation of recreational and developmental groups and activities that support the target group of young people to reach their fullest potential.
- The operation of intensive group work programmes
- Individual programmes
- Special interest preventative programmes
- Supporting young people access other community supports

Key Responsibilities

The successful candidates will be employed by Foróige and will be given a contract of employment for a fixed term. It must be understood however, that if the positions become redundant at any time during the period of the contract or if the funding for the post is discontinued or a post holder fails to perform satisfactorily, employment may be terminated. The duties of the Project workers in carrying out any functions, which may be involved in or arise out of the appointment, shall be as notified by the board of Foróige and/or its Chief Executive and/or the nominee of the Chief Executive from time to time. These duties will include but are not limited to:

- Assess the needs and interests of young people in the area with a particular focus on the target group based on the social profile undertaken by G.R.E.T.B.
- Facilitating and supporting the identified needs of young people in Boyle and Ballaghaderreen, Castlerea and Roscommon Town.
- Plan, implement and evaluate all programmes including school holiday programmes for young people in the target group. These programmes will primarily be run out of school and after school, including evenings and weekends.
- Deliver individual support to young people who are experiencing difficulties including but not limited to integration, education, employment, substance misuse, isolation, early sexualised behaviour or mental health.
- A passion for, and ability to support, the development of undocumented young people.
- Support young people in accessing other community-based supports.
- Deliver programmes which promote meaningful youth participation.
- Meet the reporting standards required by the funders by maintaining records and observing professional standards in respect of confidentiality and data protection.
- Networking and liaising with other agencies/organisations/referrers and community groups in the area in order to initiate and contribute to responses to meet youth needs. In particular liaise with the G.R.E.T.B. Youth Officer to ensure the Project meets the targets of the UBU Your Place Your Space scheme.
- Promote the service to potential users and the wider community.
- Any such other relevant duties as the board of Foróige and/or the Chief Executive Officer or the nominee of the Chief Executive Officer shall deem necessary for the effective implementation and the policy and programmes of Foróige.
- Note: These roles will require flexibility and adaptation to new and changing situations on an ongoing basis.
