Local Area Employment Services Employment Guidance Officer

Part-time (3 days)

Northside Partnership wishes to employ two part-time Local Area Employment Services (LAES) Employment Guidance Officers to support individuals experiencing long-term unemployed, focusing on helping them progress toward sustainable employment. The LAES offers a range of core services available to all clients, along with targeted services provided based on individual needs.

About Northside Partnership

Northside Partnership is a Local Development Company working with individuals and communities in northeast Dublin to bring about positive changes in their own lives and the lives within their community.

A registered Charity we work to improve opportunities for people experiencing poverty and disadvantage and offer a range of programmes and services to support individuals, local organisations and communities across the Northside Partnership catchment. Our key beneficiaries include people who are experiencing long-term unemployment, early school leavers, those living with addiction issues, families experiencing disadvantage, lone parents, Travellers and people living with disabilities.

Operating from four locations we provide a range of services including the Local Area Employment Service, Tús Community Work Placement Programme, Enterprise Support, Education and Career Guidance, Family Support, and governance and capacity-building support to local community groups. Applications are welcome from those who meet the essential criteria as outlined within the job description and person specification attached.

Northside Partnership is committed to implementing an Advantaged Thinking approach that focuses on identifying, developing and investing in the skills, capabilities and assets of the people we work with.

Applications are welcome from qualified candidates who meet the essential criteria outlined in the attached job description and person specification.
