Become a signatory to the Volunteer Charter

A new era for volunteering: The Volunteer Charter strengthens support for over 36,000 volunteers

A fresh step forward for volunteering Volunteer Ireland are proud to announce the growing adoption of The Volunteer Charter (<http://www.volunteer.ie/TheVolunteerCharter/>), a transformative tool designed to empower both organisations and volunteers alike. With 36,023 volunteers already impacted by current signatories, this charter is setting a new standard for clarity, respect, and shared purpose in the world of volunteering.

The Volunteer Charter is thoughtfully split into two key segments - one for organisations and one for volunteers - ensuring that expectations are transparent and mutual from the very start of any volunteering role. By embracing The Volunteer Charter, organisations are not only laying a strong foundation for volunteer relationships, but also actively enhancing the quality of the volunteering experience.

As more organisations sign on, the impact of The Volunteer Charter continues to grow—bringing meaningful support, recognition, and structure to tens of thousands of volunteers. It's a win-win for communities, causes, and the incredible people who give their time to make a difference.
