

Bray & North Wicklow Area Partnership: Support and Development Worker (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/115455>)

Support and Development Worker vacancy with SPECS (Supporting Parents and Early Childhood Services)

Bray and North Wicklow Area Partnership (BNWAP) is seeking applications for the SPECS Support and Development Worker vacancy. The role is a fulltime position of 35 hours per week, part time hours may be considered.

Bray and North Wicklow Area Partnership (BNWAP) works with a consortium of local community projects and statutory agencies in managing the SPECS Initiative, which focuses on evidence based early intervention and prevention work with families to achieve better outcomes for children.

The initiative is funded by Tusla under the ABC programme.

BNWAP SPECS provides a supportive environment which ensures staff take a positive, strengths-based approach to engaging with families and working with other agencies. The ideal candidate for the Support and Development Worker post will be a flexible team player, with excellent communication skills and experience of working utilising evidence-based supports with children and families in a social inclusion context.
