Why Participate?

Every day, thousands of people in Ireland are without a home. Homelessness takes so much: safety, community, and for pet owners, their faithful companions. It's another devastating blow: facing the trauma of homelessness, then being forced to surrender a beloved pet. We believe a home is the foundation for rebuilding lives, and for many, their pet is an essential part of that foundation. People deserve the chance to build a life that encompasses not just shelter, but also the richness of relationships, personal belongings, and the invaluable companionship of their beloved pets. That's where you and your four-legged friend come in!

By walking with your dog this June, you'll help Focus Ireland provide vital housing, support services, and advocacy to break the cycle of homelessness.
