
University College Cork: Care Co-operatives in Ireland & the UK Webinar (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/115565>)

Care Co-operatives in Ireland and the UK: A model for designing and delivering home care that respects and empowers care recipients, family carers and care workers.

Tuesday, 20 May, 11:00 - 12:30.

To register for this online event, please go to Online Webinar: Care Co-operatives in Ireland and the UK
(<https://www.cubsucc.com/events/online-webinar--care-co-operatives-in-ireland-and-the-uk/>)

In this webinar, we will hear from Emma Back, Equal Care Co-op (<https://www.equalcare.coop/>), Yorkshire and Aoife Smith, The Great Care Co-op (<https://www.thegreatcarecoop.ie/>), Dublin, who will tell their stories about setting up a home care co-operative and how the co-operative model can provide home care in a way that respects and empowers those who matter most - people receiving care, family carers and care workers.

This will be followed by a discussion to assess how co-operative models might provide a solution to the growing challenges in care. Joining us on the panel will be Professor Emeritus Colin Talbot, University of Manchester; Dr Gerard Doyle, Technological University Dublin; and Professor Julien Mercille, University College Dublin.

The webinar will be chaired by Dr Carol Power and Dr Caroline Crowley, co-authors of the CO-AGE report (<https://cora.ucc.ie/items/e21f2a02-873e-4aba-afa1-b2f627c5c7b4>), which explored the potential to develop care co-operatives in Ireland.

Presented by the Centre for Co-operative Studies, UCC, in association with the Society for Co-operative Studies in Ireland (SCSI) and the UK Society for Co-operative Studies (UKSCS).
