

Brothers Of Charity Services Ireland - South East: Volunteers Needed (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/115633>)

Title: Volunteer with Us – Help Build Inclusive Communities in Waterford, Wexford & South Kilkenny

Location: Waterford, Wexford, South Kilkenny

Commitment: Flexible – based on your availability and matched to individual needs

Deadline: Ongoing recruitment

About Us:

We are committed to supporting people with intellectual disabilities in claiming their rightful place as valued and included members of society. Inclusion is at the heart of all we do. We believe in the dignity and intrinsic worth of every person and work to promote this across our services.

The Role of a Volunteer:

Volunteers play a key role in enriching the lives of the individuals we support. By giving your time, skills and friendship, you can help create real opportunities for social engagement and community participation.

Some people simply want a coffee and a chat, while others would love a companion for social or sporting events. We carefully match each volunteer with a suitable placement based on shared interests, preferences, and availability.

Why Volunteer with Us?

- Make a real difference in someone's life
- Be part of a welcoming, values-driven organisation
- Receive full training and ongoing support

- Gain valuable experience – many of our volunteers go on to employment within our service
- Connect with others and grow personally

What We're Looking For:

- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Organisational ability and a proactive attitude
- A friendly, empathetic nature
- Aged 18 or over
- Fluent English

Volunteer Supports Include:

- Induction and training
- Ongoing support from our Volunteer Coordinator
- Recognition of your contribution

Screening Process:

- Informal interview
- Application form and references
- Garda vetting
- Online training

You Will:

- Make new friends
- Learn from others
- Be part of a movement that values inclusion and community
