

PACE: Volunteers @yourPACE

(<https://www.activelink.ie/node/115699>)

Make a Real Difference: Volunteer with PACE @your PACE and work alongside people with offending histories, helping them to rebuild their lives, avoid reoffending, and contribute positively to society.

If you believe everyone deserves a second chance. Could you be the person who helps someone build a safer, better life?

As a Volunteer, You Will:

- Join a small volunteer group that meets regularly with someone rebuilding their life
- Provide support group for individuals transitioning back into the community.
- Offer non-judgmental encouragement, guidance, and accountability.
- Receive training, ongoing support, and be part of a dedicated team

We're Looking For:

- Emotionally resilient, empathetic, open-minded individuals
- Good listeners with a non-judgmental attitude
- A few hours per month to attend meetings with Participants
- Over 21's fluent in English speakers

Why Volunteer?

- Make a lasting impact on someone's life.
- Be part of a transformative, evidence-based model for change.
- Gain valuable experience in rehabilitation, justice, and community support.

If you're passionate about safer communities and second chances, join PACE as a volunteer and support individuals on their journey to reintegration and a better future. No experience needed. Full training provided
