Community Response Ltd.
is recruiting for a

Community Alcohol Detox Worker (fixed-term contract)

At Community Response Ltd, we help people make positive changes in their lives. We are a registered charity based in Dublin 8, offering a primary alcohol support service. Our addiction support workers are essential to our mission, providing support, advocacy, and education to individuals affected by addiction and liver health problems.

Our goal is to help people make and keep healthy lifestyle choices regarding alcohol and polydrug misuse. We're dedicated to creating peer initiatives, identifying new needs, and including feedback from service users in our programs.

The Community Response Management Committee is hiring a Community Alcohol Detox worker (fixed-term contract).

Community Alcohol Detox (CAD)

The Management Committee of Community Response is currently recruiting the right individual to work with the team supporting service users to access and undertake a community alcohol detox.

The role:

The person will act as a broker for suitable individuals seeking non-residential alcohol detoxification services in their community. They will liaise with GPs and other addiction services, creating referral pathways and providing psychosocial support to the service user. Additionally, they will assess the readiness and suitability for undertaking a detox and provide support and referrals for relapse prevention and aftercare.

Reporting: The Community Alcohol Detox broker will report on a day-to-day basis to the Team Leader and will also be supervised by them. Community Response and its work will be informed and guided by the project's strategic plan and mission.
