

Dublin Simon Community: Support Worker Days Emergency (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/116276>)

About Us: At Dublin Simon Community, we're dedicated to making home a reality. We empower individuals to access and sustain housing through services like prevention, addiction treatment, emergency response, and targeted interventions, in collaboration with our partners.

If you share our values and want to make a difference, we'd love to hear from you. We're looking for client-focused, friendly, and adaptable individuals to join our team.

We prioritise best practices in HR, including staff training, communication, and involvement in decision-making, to create a supportive and effective work environment.

About our services:

All our emergency services are provided on a low threshold basis with a harm reduction model and a full suite of services for clients. The aim of our emergency services is to support our residents to move on to and to be able to sustain long term accommodation. We have several measures in place to ensure a quality, wraparound support service is provided to enable people to move out of homelessness.

About the role:

Contract Type – Full Time Permanent.

Working Hours – a 5 week rolling roster of day shifts, 37.5 hours a week, from Monday to Sunday availability.

Location – Dublin city centre

Salary: From €33,500 to €38,250 depending on experience.

As a Day Support Worker, you'll help to meet client needs on a daily basis; you will provide in-the-moment support and safety to clients. You will contribute to ensuring effective and consistent best-practice standards are followed in the Dublin Simon Community emergency accommodation services.

The Support Worker role is an opportunity to gain frontline experience and many support workers graduate on to project worker roles within the organisation.
