

Participant's needed for study on women's experiences of nights out (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/116544>)

A SETU WATERFORD PHD PROJECT

Are you a 18-24 year old woman who goes on nights out regularly (once a week) or occasionally (once a month)?

We're looking for females living in Ireland to participate in informal one-to-one interviews for an exciting PhD study about their experiences in bars, pubs, clubs, and everything in between.

WHY SHOULD YOU PARTICIPATE?

Your insights will help us understand why women go out, how they feel in nightlife spaces, and what their ideal night out looks like. By sharing your experiences, you'll contribute to informing policymakers and practitioners on how to improve the nighttime experience for women, from a woman's perspective.

To learn more or get involved email Shannon at 20103731@mail.wit.ie (<mailto:20103731@mail.wit.ie>)

This project is funded by SETU President's Scholarship.
