

Lourdes Youth and Community Services (LYCS) (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/150>)

Lourdes Youth and Community Services (LYCS) is an integrated community development project based in Dublin's North East inner city.

Through it's four programmes, LYCS works with approximately 250 children, young people and adults every week, in the areas of education and training, social, cultural and recreational activity.

The four programmes of work are:

- Childcare Programme - First Steps Creche
- Youth Programme - Centre and community based youth programmes
- Community Training Centre - Education and training for young people
- Adult Education Programme - An informal training, educational and social programme, including Development Education - Social analysis education with a global perspective
