

Youth Work Ireland (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/187>)

The Youth Work Ireland (formerly National Youth Federation) is the largest youth work organisation in Ireland. As the coordinating and development agency for Local Youth Services in Ireland, Youth Work Ireland is committed to promoting community based youth services which are relevant accessible and attractive to young people.

Through our nationwide network of young people committed volunteer leaders and staff, the organisation seeks to improve the situation of young people by delivering high quality youth work services.

Our range of services at national and local level facilitate the personal development and social education of thousands of young people on a daily basis in Ireland.
