

CASPr (Community After Schools project) (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/199>)

Community After Schools Project (CASPr) is a community development agency based in Dublin's North Inner City and established in 1995.

Our mission is "To counter educational disadvantage in Dublin's North East Inner City in order to contribute to the elimination of poverty in our community."

We provide an after school programme that caters for 150 primary school children and QQI certified training programmes in childcare.

Our young people and local residents have a long tradition of success!
