

Centre for Co-operative Studies (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/201>)

The Centre for Co-operative Studies is a university research centre that promotes education and training and independent research and consultancy in all aspects of co-operative organisation.

The Centre continues its work of fostering research, study and education about co-operatives. It is a strong focus of support for academics who are interested in co-operatives and it works closely with many national and international co-operative bodies.

The Centre has developed a number of distance learning programmes for practitioners in the area of community and rural development and credit unions.
