About Us

Rekindle Talents (RT) was officially registered as a charity organisation with The Revenue in Ireland on the 11th November 2011 (11.11.11). The desire to rekindle talents in our community started in 1994 in The Gambia. It was realised that many vibrant young ones has the willingness and hunger for education, but lack of necessary financial resources which is the pre-requisite to exploring other opportunities was an issue and big huddle to fulfilment of people potentials.

RT founder Dotun Adegbesan gives free counselling and single-handedly sponsored education of identified unnoticed-talents that comes his way.

Our Vision

Our strategic plan is basically to source for necessary tools and resources required to "bring out the best out of people with great potentials but less or no privilege"
