

St Vincent's Trust (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/296>)

St Vincent's Trust is a community organisation of the Daughters of Charity providing education, training, childcare and personal support services for adults, youth and children from the local communities in the north inner city area of Dublin. The mission of St Vincent's Trust is to strengthen our community and to encourage individuals and families to achieve their full potential.

The services of St Vincent's Trust comprise:

- St Mary's Nursery for 55 young children (3 months -5 years)resident in the community.
- Henrietta Street School under the Department of Education & Science for 20 at-risk children aged 11-16 years.
- Community Training Centre for 55 early school leavers and other vulnerable youth aged 15 years and over.
- Henrietta Adult & Community Education (HACE) Service providing learning opportunities for 350 adults seeking to return to education.
- Dominican Day Centre for 120 senior citizens.
