

Dyslexia Association of Ireland (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/350>)

The Dyslexia Association of Ireland - a voluntary organisation with charitable status - aims to promote the understanding, treatment and prevention of the problems associated with dyslexia, a specific learning disability.

The association lobbies for appropriate services for people with dyslexia, and also acts as a service provider, offering assessment, specialist tuition, and training.

The association also aims to increase the public awareness and understanding of dyslexia.
