

Centre for Peace and Conflict Research (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/352>)

In order to better reflect the ongoing work of the centre and to facilitate the involvement of a greater number of colleagues the centre has been renamed the Centre for Peace and Conflict Research (CPCR) More details of plans for the renamed Centre will be posted over the Summer and in the early Autumn. We look forward to working with partners, old and new, over the coming years to further our understanding of peacemaking and peacebuilding across these islands and beyond
