

Clanwilliam Institute: Family and Relationship Psychotherapy – Education and Consultancy (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/49052>)

Clanwilliam Institute is a registered charity (CHY6591) that provides Education and Psychotherapy. Its mission is to provide high quality and accessible services to the general public including systemic psychotherapy, professional training programmes, organisational consultancy and research. The values of excellence, accountability and transparency guided by ethical rigour and best practice inform all the Institutes activities.

Our therapists are systemic / family psychotherapists who are trained to work with a broad range of issues, and work with individuals, couples, families and children. As a registered charity we also offer a low fee service.

We have initiated a variety of services including Individual, Couple and Family Therapy, Mediation, Organisational Consultation and Postgraduate Training in Systemic Family Therapy for Mental Health professionals .

The Institute is staffed by experienced professional therapists, all of whom have undertaken post-graduate training and are registered with the Irish Council for Psychotherapy (ICP), the Family Therapy Association of Ireland (FTAI) and the European Association of Psychotherapy (EAP). The Institute is managed by the CEO and the Management Team.
