

Genealogical Society of Ireland (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/54>)

Who are we ?

"Ireland's most active genealogical society"

A society for anyone who is interested in genealogy, family history, social history, and related activities.

The strength of the Society rests with its community of members, and their willingness to work together on individual family histories, advice clinics, publications, lectures, social meetings, document storage, archival research, database creation and dissemination, scientific research, and campaigns for legislative change.
