

Suas Announcement: New Executive Director appointed (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/81428>)

The Board of Suas Educational Development are delighted to announce that Nina Sachau, currently the Global Citizenship Manager with GOAL, will be taking up the role of Executive Director at the end of May.

Nina was born and educated in Germany before completing her Post Graduate Degree in Development Studies at Kimmage. She has had a very interesting career since then including roles at Comhlamh, Concern and Goal whilst also being involved in advocacy with Claiming our Future and the Robinhood Tax Campaign. Prior to her current role in GOAL, she spent 18 months working in Vietnam with GIZ, the German Development Agency.

Nina takes over the leadership of Suas at a very interesting and exciting time. Back in February, the literacy/ numeracy division of Suas merged with Camara Ireland to create a new entity with the result that Suas Educational Development, going forward, will be focused on developing and expanding its Global Citizenship programs and its flagship International Volunteering Program in the coming years.
