

Mayo, Sligo and Leitrim Education and Training Board (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/92800>)

Mayo, Sligo and Leitrim Education and Training Board is the leading provider of education and training in the region. As an integral part of our communities, we deliver educational services to 30,000 children, young people, and adults through our 19 schools, 12 Further Education and Training Centres, 5 Youthreach Centres and 2 Training Centres. We are responsive to the needs of learners, employers, and communities across the counties of Mayo, Sligo and Leitrim, and aim to provide a positive experience for our learners in a professional, caring and collaborative environment.

MSLETB is the state education and training authority for the counties of Mayo, Sligo and Leitrim in Ireland, playing a leading role in the provision of high quality education and training in the region. This is achieved by providing opportunities for those living in our area and by responding to learner, student, community and business needs in the region.

Our learners include fulltime students in post primary schools and also learners engaged in a wide range of Further Education and Training Programmes.
