

Irish Heritage Trust (<https://www.activelink.ie/node/92821>)

The Irish Heritage Trust is an independent not-for-profit which brings special places to life for everyone to enjoy. Established in 2006, the Trust cares for and brings to life a variety of historic houses, gardens and parklands, while developing innovative visitor experiences at these beautiful places.

The Trust is bringing benefit to local communities and businesses through tourism, employment and a successful volunteering programme. Environmental sustainability is a core objective, including the protection and enhancement of our natural heritage across all properties.

As we continue to share these wonderful properties in meaningful ways, we believe that they will not only survive but thrive for future generations to enjoy. Discover more about our work and see these wonderful properties.
