

Irish Links ^[1]

Launched in 2001, Irish Links was the first online directory exclusively listing Irish non-profit organisations that use the Internet. These diverse groups are also united by a common aim: to bring about positive change in society.

All of the organisations are listed alphabetically in categories. The information displayed for each group is organised as follows:

- Organisation's name
- Mission Statement / Aims & Objectives / Areas of Work
- Postal address, phone and fax
- E-mail
- Website address / URL

Submit your Organisation's details to the directory

Email us the above details and choose the 2 most suitable categories where your group / project should be listed. - email info@activelink.ie ^[2]

Irish Links has been indexed by WWW search engines since 2001, so being listed on it will benefit your organisation and can improve its website's search ranking.

With your input Irish Links can continue to be a vital resource for non-profits, government bodies, sponsors, volunteers and other interested parties who want to get in touch with each other.

Please help us to keep Irish Links up-to-date - if you require changes to the information displayed or need to add new text contact info@activelink.ie ^[2]
