

St Declans Special National School ^[1]

Founded in 1958 by the Jesuits, St Declans School with the endorsement and co-operation of the Department of Education and Science, offers a specialised educational service to children who for personal reasons are achieving below their potential in mainstream primary schooling.

The school strives to create a supportive and caring environment for each child. Families are encouraged to participate in the activities of the school.

With a team of dedicated teachers, the school provides individual attention in small classes catering for the uniqueness of each child's personality. The aim is to enable children to attain their potential and fulfill their role in society. A.M.D.G.
