

Pathways Ireland: Multiple Relief Social Care Workers ^[1]

Pathways Ireland is recruiting for the following positions:

- Multiple Relief Social Care Workers

Pathways Ireland offers high quality residential child care services in Kildare, Offaly and Meath.

At Pathways Ireland, we work from a relationship and competency model that stresses the importance of a client centred approach as well as high accountability and performance from the staff working with us. We offer needs led approach and we work collaboratively with young people, their families and any professionals deemed suitable for involvement with the young people.

Pathways Ireland takes the view that young people entering into the service have experienced deprivation and are in a place of crisis and distress. The role of staff members is to take a positive view of each young person, used a strengths based approach, and always seek a way to help young people gain a sense of achievement and self-worth in order take steps towards a better future.

We are seeking highly motivated people who can work off their own initiative, can follow direction, who are great team players and have a genuine interest in the care of young people.

Applicants will be expected to demonstrate a clear understanding of Residential Child Care, inclusive of but not limited to; government legislation, social policies, theory relevant to child care, child protection procedures, multi-disciplinary work, person centred planning, managing crisis and professional report writing.

The following criteria must be met to apply for each of the above advertised positions:

Relief and Full Time Social Care Worker:

Eligibility criteria- The candidate must possess a BA in Applied Social Studies (or other relevant third level qualification).

Applications will only be accepted on the application form attached to this advertisement. All sections must be completed in full. Due to the high number of applicants expected we will only be in a position to respond to those who are successful in being offered an interview.

Please write 'Application' in the subject line of your email application to ensure it reaches our mail inbox.

Application will be accepted via email, post or fax.
