

Dublin Simon Community: Support Worker on Flexible Contract <sup>[1]</sup>

Dublin Simon Community work to prevent and address homelessness. The charity provides services at all stages of homelessness to enable people to move to a place they can call home.

This role is an exciting opportunity for any individual committed to working in a social or care setting. We are a committed organisation involved in a range of services including Emergency Services, Treatment Services and Housing Services. Support Workers on Flexible contracts have the opportunity to work across the full spectrum of services. Staff who have undertaken this role in the past have gone on to take up roles as support worker in a set service or project worker posts in a range of services in the organisation. These staff report that the best parts of the Flexi role is the chance to work in a number of different work environments and the continued opportunity for the development of skills.

(PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS ROLE REQUIRES STAFF TO WORK SOME NIGHT SHIFTS)

Dublin Simon Community has been awarded the Excellence Through People accreditation for the past 3 years. This standard is achieved by organisations that have best practice Human Resource Systems in place, particularly in the area of staff training and development, communication, and staff involvement in the decision making processes in the organisation.

We are looking for an individual with a recognized third level qualification in a relevant discipline, with previous working or volunteering experience in a social care setting.
