JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Support Worker, St Patricks Hill	Post Holder:	Vacant
Reports To:	The Team Leader	Location:	Limerick
Salary:	This role is attached to a defined salary scale which ranges from \in 31,190 to \in 37,410 and appointments are made depending on experience.

Purpose of the Job

The role of Support Worker is vital to the successful delivery of quality programmes and services in NOVAS for our clients. The Support Worker will support the clients of St Patricks Hill, which is a low support, small residential service for adults with disabilities.

The Support Worker will report directly to the Project Manager, will be a member of the St Patricks Hill Team, and work collaboratively with the staff teams, wider NOVAS services, external service providers and local authorities in the region.

The Support Worker will ensure the efficient day to day running of the service during the shift, effective communication with partner services and all aspects of health and safety.

The role is situated in our St Patricks Hill service, Limerick. It is 40 hours a week. The shifts are typically 8 or 15 hours, depending on the needs of the service and are over 7 days a week.

The Support Worker will have a background in Social Care, minimum level 7, with training or experience in the areas of Homeless and/or Disability Services and will be expected to work within the relevant frameworks of quality standards or legislation.

This job description is a guide to the general range of duties assigned to the post holder. It is intended to be neither definitive nor restrictive and is subject to periodic review

Environment of the Job

NOVAS is a not for profit organisation and Approved Housing Body, we work with single adults, couples and families and who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. We provide a range of services and accommodation. Our first service was established in Limerick in 2002 which was a temporary low-threshold emergency homeless accommodation and we have grown from there. We now have over 300 staff, and more than 30 services in Limerick, Dublin, Clare, Kerry, Cork and Tipperary including emergency homeless accommodation, transitional homeless accommodation, social housing and community based services for tenancy sustainment, homelessness prevention, mental health and recovery.

NOVAS is a Trauma Informed Practice Organisation and the principles of collaboration, diversity, respect and trust are embedded in our way of working together.

Our services are provided through support of our partners in local government through the Local Authorities, HSE, and other donors and funders.

Delegation and Reporting

The Support Worker has decision making remit for the areas of identifying appropriate housing and support needs in collaboration with clients, colleagues and management within the services within the city and sometimes the wider surrounding areas. The Support Worker may also be required to consult with, and take direction from Head of Operations or the CEO, or another specified member of the senior management team.

The Support Worker will at all times operate in a professional and respectful manner, maintaining high quality standards of work in in accordance with the values and mission of NOVAS. Their decision making will at all times be informed by the best interests of the clients and tenants and ensuring cost effective value for money, use of donations and public money.

Challenges

The nature of our work involves supporting the most vulnerable people who often have complex needs and may be survivors of trauma. As a result, during the course of your work you may engage with sensitive and confidential matters that require empathy, compassion and pragmatism. You may also encounter clients or tenants who are in distress, displaying challenging behaviours or struggling to moderate their behaviour. Patience, respect and an ability to remain professional and focused on deescalating is essential. Further training will be provided in Trauma Informed Practice or Crisis Prevention.

As an organisation that is largely funded by public money, effective use of resources is a continuous focus and challenge.
