

Department of International Development

Master's Scholarship Scheme, 2019/2020

Maynooth University

National University of Ireland Maynooth

Following the launch of the new Maynooth University Department of International Development in 2019, the Department has decided to enhance its reputation for excellence in teaching and research by offering up to two full EU-fee scholarships to outstanding individuals wishing to pursue the taught MA in International Development.

This is a unique opportunity for the successful candidates to be able to develop their understanding and skills in the area of international development. Applying critical learning approaches, they will be enabled to reflect on their own experience in the light of development theories, policies and different approaches to practice. They will also be prepared for work in the international development field through linking development theory with practice, seeking alternatives to current development processes, and learning how to turn development aspirations into realities in the Global South and North.

Eligibility

Applicants must intend to pursue a full-time taught Master's degree in International Development at Maynooth University in the academic year 2019-20 and meet the following eligibility criteria:

1. Demonstrated experience (3 years or more) in community development or global development in areas such as social justice, human rights, development education, volunteering or campaigning.
2. Applicants will need to demonstrate, through the provision of official academic transcripts, that they have achieved (or will achieve in summer 2019):
 - a 2.1 upper 2nd class honours undergraduate degree
3. Applications will only be accepted from EU citizens and residents of the EU deemed eligible for EU fees who satisfy the eligibility requirements of the Master's in International Development programme.
4. Graduates from Maynooth University and other universities are welcome to apply, including applicants from the BA graduating class of 2019. Alumni of Maynooth University who are unaware of their degree result should contact the Maynooth University Student Records office: records.office@mu.ie to request official transcript information.
5. Applicants are required to complete and submit their CV and expression of interest to the Department of International Development by 12th July 2019.
6. Following their expression of interest, candidates must have applied for the MA in International Development at Maynooth University on www.pac.ie by the 12th July 2019.
7. Provision of two x letters of academic reference (as part of the PAC.ie application).

Ineligibility

Graduates or current students of PhD or Master's programmes are not eligible to apply. Prospective students interested in research programmes should apply instead for the Maynooth University John and Pat Hume Doctoral Research Awards.

Value of the Scholarship

The total value of each full-time scholarship will be up to the cost of full-time EU fees of €6,700. Only entrants who are deemed eligible for EU fees will be eligible to receive the scholarship.

Scholarship assessment

An initial eligibility check will be undertaken by the Department of International Development at Maynooth University to ensure that applications have met the eligibility requirements.

Expressions of interest will be reviewed by an academic panel consisting of the Head of the Department of International Development and the Lecturer responsible for postgraduate admissions at the Department. Shortlisted candidates will be invited to interview to discuss their interest. The panel will rank candidates based on their expressions of interest and interviews using the following marking scheme:

1. Academic attainment – 20%
2. CV/previous experience – 20%
3. Personal statement – 30%
4. Master's thesis proposal – 20%
5. References – 10%

Application process

Please send the following documents to paddy.reilly@mu.ie by the closing date of the 12th July 2019:

- a personal statement outlining your interest and relevant experience
- a CV
- a short (less than 1,000 word) thesis proposal
- two reference letters (one academic and one related to your experience). Please note that reference letters should be provided as part of your Master's programme online application on pac.ie. For further information about the PAC application process, please contact pacinfo@mu.ie.
